Canadian Broadcasting Corporation

1. WHEREAS the general excellence and variety of the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation's programs, both radio and television, are widely acknowledged; and
2. WHEREAS these programs have been made available entertainment and information to sections of the public debarred by locality or other circumstances from access to such cultural facilities, and also that these programs have contributed to a sense of Canadian identity; and
3. WHEREAS the C.B.C. has been under heavy and repeated attack from various sources;
4. BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED that the Canadian Unitarian Council affirms its strong support of the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation as a completely independent body free from political and/or commercial interference and programming; and
5. BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the CUC call upon the Government of Canada to finance the C.B.C. at a sufficiently high level of support to make sure that the C.B.C.'s independence from political and commercial interference can continue, and the C.B.C. can continue to make such vital and adequate contributions to the social and cultural life of Canada.
