
KEYNOTE SPEAKER:

JESSICA PURPLE RODELA

Since arriving in Canada to serve Grand River Unitarian Congregation in the fall of 2008, Rev. Jess has served on the Canadian Unitarian Council Board of Trustees, as President of the UU Ministers of Canada, as a voting member of Interfaith Grand River, and as a mentor to ministerial candidates and chaplaincy students. Her Borden Award-winning sermon “Can’t We All Get Along? Loving Your (Political) Opponent” appears in The Shared Pulpit: A Sermon Seminar for Lay People (Erika Hewitt), and “The Prayer of the War Atheist” was published in the retrospective Interfaith Grand River: Our Journey.

Location:

YMCA Cedar Glen Outdoor Centre

13300 Concession 11
Schomberg, ON L0G 1T0

Information and registration:

Helen Iacovino,

HelenIacovino@FirstUnitarianToronto
.org or 416-499-7049

Website:

<http://uumidwinterretreat.blogspot.ca>

UU
Midwinter Retreat

Feb 1-3 2019
“Connecting our Stories”

JOIN US FOR THE 30TH ANNUAL MIDWINTER RETREAT!

POSSIBLE WORKSHOPS INCLUDE:

- Tarot Reading
- Ambiguous loss
- Yoga – healthy aging
- Co-housing
- Folk dancing
- Life-story writing
- Conversations about sex/sexuality!
- Tai Chi
- Journal writing
- Eldership
- Unitarian History
- Spiritual practices—incorporate into your life
- Brene Brown
- Whatever ideas you'd like to add! Let us know!

CLIMBING THE HIGH ROPES!

Try nature walks, high rope climbs, snowshoeing, tobogganing and other fun outdoor activities with the on-site staff!

ALWAYS RELIABLE!

Lots of:
Fun! Music! Dancing!
Games! Euchre! Food!
Socializing!
Natural Beauty!

Meet new friends!
Enjoy a chocolate communion at our Sunday Service!
Take a weekend off and recharge your energy with friendly and like-minded people!