

Biography

Ilara Stefaniuk-Gaudet is a visual artist, poet, and story teller. They are a lifelong UU, even before they knew it! They are a disabled human who has spent their years advocating for people with disabilities, Inter-faith initiatives, and LGBTQ2S+ humans, and following synchronicity to wherever it guides them. Ilara loves gardening, anything crafty, and writing critical analysis of ableism and intersectionality. Ilara is a newly minted B.A. student at Athabasca University with the long term dream of going to seminary!

Caption