WHO WE ARE

The Canadian Unitarian Council is the national association of Canadian Unitarian Universalist congregations. It acts as a beacon for Unitarian Universalist communities across Canada, providing you with leadership, support and connection as you foster a just and sustainable world and to enrich the spiritual lives of individuals.

We envision a world in which our interdependence calls us to love and justice, and aspire to be:

- Deeply connected.
- Radically inclusive.
- Actively engaged.
- Theologically alive.
- Spiritually grounded.
